BIBLIOGRAPHY

Bregy, Jill Richards. An Illustrated Study of the Irish Wolfhound. Revised edition October 2002. Privately printed. A book “dedicated to the preservation of the breed.” Mrs. Bregy, master breeder, owner, handler, judge, discusses the standard, knowledge of structure and the importance of understanding genetics in maintaining a breeding program. This is an insightful, must-have book for those who are caretakers and students of the Irish Wolfhound breed.

De Quoy, Alfred, The Irish Wolfhound Guide (1987). Third Edition (Illustrated). Privately printed. A reference book of extensive factual data encompassing all things Wolfhound. For the serious student rather than those seeking generalized information.

De Quoy, Alfred, The Irish Wolfhound in Competition (1980). Privately printed. A most interesting reference book for the statistically minded.

De Quoy, Alfred, The Irish Wolfhound in Irish Literature and Law (1971). Illustrated. Privately printed. An exceptional reference book.

Donovan, John A. K., The Irish Wolfhound – Great Symbol of Ireland. Alpine Publications, Inc., 1986. Beautifully illustrated book with factual information on the history of the breed, bloodlines, the breed standard, showing, breeding, and training are included. And for art and literature loving fans, a discussion of the Irish Wolfhound in myth and legend is presented.

Gardner, Phyllis and Delphis Gardner, Some Great Irish Greyhounds and Wolfdogs from the Past. Published by the Irish Wolfhound Club of Ireland, 2001. The plan for producing the “Gardner Albums”, as this project would become known, was ingenious. The original goal was to make photographs depicting evidence of the existence of the Irish Wolfhound before its revival. It became a legacy of photographs and writings depicting a historical album of Irish Wolfhounds.

Gordon, John, The Irish Wolfhound (1973). Illustrated. John Bartholomew and Son, Ltd., Edinburgh, Scotland.

Gover, Linda. The Irish Wolfhound. Kingdom Books, England, 1998. An informative and well-illustrated book written by a breeder, owner, handler with many suggestions based on her own experiences with Irish Wolfhounds.

Graham, Capt. George Augustus. The Irish Wolfhound (1973 reprint). Historical account. Illustrated. Reprint of original 1885 edition. Combined with Edmund Hogan's The Irish Wolfdog. The Irish Wolfhound Club of America and The Irish Wolfhound Club of Ireland.
