

Frequently Asked Questions

What do the numbers mean?

Multiple Generation Longevity Certified

How do I submit my paperwork?

Applications and the supporting information can be mailed to: IWCA Longevity Program, Kerri McIntyre Murphy, 805 E 11th Ave., Winfield, KS 67156, emailed to Wolfhound@cox.net, or faxed to 206-426-6256.

What kind of documentation is accepted?

Many types of documentation is accepted including a Veterinarian statement, a statement from an Active IWCA member, or information from the IWCA archives, just to name a few. If you have any questions about more specific types of documentation, please contact Kerri McIntyre Murphy at wolfhound@cox.net

My dog has been dead for many years, what kind of documentation will you take?

A letter from an Active IWCA Member attesting to the age of the dog is acceptable. Proof the dog was entered in a dog show after the age of 8 is also acceptable. If you believe you have some other documentation that would qualify as proof, please contact Kerri McIntyre Murphy at wolfhound@cox.net

Can I have duplicate certificates for co-owners?

Unfortunately in order to keep costs down, only one certificate will be issued to the owner, however, additional certificates may be requested for an additional charge. Please contact Kerri McIntyre Murphy at wolfhound@cox.net for additional details.

Who can submit an application?

The owner or breeder of the dog may submit an application.

I am not a member of the IWCA, can I still participate?

You do not have to be a member of the IWCA to participate in the program. If you would like to join the IWCA please contact the Membership Chair, Patty Newgard at pnewgy@hughes.net

I do not live in the USA can I participate?

We welcome Wolfhound owners from all over the world. Registration in the breed registry where you live is required. Please contact Kerri McIntyre Murphy at wolfhound@cox.net for information about types of documentation acceptable as proof of living or death.

I have received my certificate and it has an error. Can I get a new certificate?

If you receive a certificate with spelling or other errors of our doing, please notify Kerri McIntyre Murphy at wolfhound@cox.net and a new certificate will be issued free of charge. However, we cannot reissue certificates free of charge if you make a spelling or other error on your application.

My dog ate my certificate/I spilled coffee/tea/pop on my certificate - can I get a new one?

Sure, we can send you a new certificate, but you will be expected to pay for it. Please contact Kerri McIntyre Murphy at wolfhound@cox.net for details.
